UFF is affiliated with NEA and AFT, the two largest educator unions in the U.S., as well as with the broader labor movement under the umbrella of the AFL-CIO. Affiliate unions support the work of our members by using pooled resources to provide services and take collective action local chapters could not accomplish on their own. They also help build influence at the state and national levels in ways that directly improve the lives of our members and families.